DON'T FORGET FLYERS IN RED CHINA, APPEAL

By DON KLOTZBUCHER

Rear Admiral George C. Harrison, USN, Retired, honorary national commander of the American Ex-Prisoners of War, Inc., today called upon the United Nations not to forget the 11 American fliers falsely imprisoned by Red China even though the Formosa crisis has foreshadowed all other activities in the Far East.

Primary Needs of Palm Springs Subject Friday

Capital Improvement program of the City of Palm Springs will be the main topic of discussion at the meeting of Mayor Florian Boyd's Coordinating Council at 12:15 p.m. Friday, at The Racquet Club.

Mayor Boyd is expected to name a Citizens' Committee to work with a council committee, to plan primary needs of the community.

Many items concerning capital improvement have been discussed by city council during the past several years, with no definite plan formulated.

Village Business Shows Big Gains

Million Dollar Gain Shown in 3 Months

City Treasurer's Report Reveals Sharp Increase

Business in Palm Springs for the fourth quarter of 1954 was almost one million dollars better than for the corresponding quarter in 1953, Shelby V. Langford, city treasurer, reported this week.

His compilation of business, drawn from sales tax reports, indicated that 486 sales outlets, subject to the city's one-cent sales tax, did business valued at $5,836,795 in October, November and December, 1954. In the similar three months in 1953, 460 sales outlets reported $4,926,592 in business.

EATING AND DRINKING places topped the list in the Village with 78 such establishments reporting $1,280,658 in sales. In the corresponding quarter in 1953, 74 establishments reported $1,145,199.

The apparel group, with 51 outlets last quarter, did $902,357 in business. In the similar quarter in 1953, 52 outlets reported $790,374.

In the general merchandise groups, there were eight outlets in 1954 which reported $693,926. The same establishments in 1953 reported $563,081.

IN THE BUILDING materials group, 54 firms reported $778,494 in business in the last quarter of 1954 compared to $581,554 reported by 50 firms in the similar period in 1953.

One of the largest gains, percentage-wise, was reported by beauty parlors. Eleven salons in 1954 reported sales of $1,657 in the last three months of 1954 while in the corresponding period in 1953, eight such businesses did only $454 in sales.

Langford emphasized that the $5,836,795 sales total did not include service stations, food sales and other, similar establishments not subject to the city sales tax.

City Offices to Close Tomorrow
City offices will be closed tomorrow, Tuesday, February 22, due to the anniversary of George Washington's birthday, a legal holiday.

Library to be Closed All Day Tomorrow
Wellwood Murray Public Library will be closed all day tomorrow, Washington's Birthday, Dorothy Bear, librarian, said Friday.

Chief Kettmann Reports Police Load Increasing
The police load in January, 1955, was substantially heavier than the same month last year, Chief August G. Kettmann revealed today in his monthly report to city council.

As an example, there were 31 petty thefts reported in 1954, of which nine were cleared. In 1955, 55 were reported and to date nine have been cleared, Kettmann said.

Other offenses reported during the month were: one robbery; one aggravated assault; 14 burglaries, two cleared by

'Sports in Sun' to be Theme of Desert Circus

"Sports in the Sun" was selected as the tentative theme for the 1955 Desert Circus at the first organizational meeting held Wednesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Confirmation of the theme will be made upon approval of the chairman or co-chairmen of the event, when they are selected. Several names were proposed, and contact is now being made for acceptance.

The 1955 Desert Circus, already billed as "the best to ever be presented," will be held April 14 through 17.

All members of past successful Desert Circus celebrations have pledged their support and assistance wherever possible. Among persons present at the initial session were: President Adrian Rosen, Harold West, Fred Ingram, Marvin Fritz, George Strebe, Jeano Ballard, Herb Esbitt, Ray Corliss, Jim Morton. Next meeting will be called by the new chairman, as soon as their selection is announced.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ACTIVITIES ORGANIZED

Officers were elected and committee appointments made at the first meeting of the Palm Springs Historical Society held in the patio of Wellwood Murray Memorial Library Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman, presided at the initial session. The Society is an auxiliary of the library.

Officers named Thursday were: George Roberson, vice chairman; Herbert Samson, treasurer; and Mrs. Edgar Kaufman, secretary.

Committee chairmen are: Mrs. William C. Rogers, membership; Mrs. Herbert Burns, exhibitions; Mrs. Carl Lykken, pioneer society; Mrs. Steve Vidossics, photographs; Mrs. Zaddie Bunker, story of the war years in Palm Springs; Ray Corliss, story of organizations identified with Palm Springs; Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, publicity; Mrs. Margaret Foldes Taylor, famous visitors.

Directors of the organization besides those named are: Mrs. Austin McManus, Mrs. Culver Rogers, Mrs. Herbert Burns, and Mrs. Margaret Foldes Taylor; second row, Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, Mrs. O. S. McKinney, Miss Cornelia White, Mrs. Zaddie Bunker, Mrs. Carl Lykken, Mrs. Steve Vidossics, Herbert Samson, George Roberson, Earl Coffman, and Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman.

Meetings will be held the third Thursday of each month, starting at 2 p.m., at the library.

Vital Problems to be Discussed

Problems of special interest to Palm Springs will be considered at the annual meeting of City Managers of California at Santa Rosa Wednesday through Friday, City Manager R. W. Peterson reported today.

Peterson will be among those in attendance at the three-day session.

On the agenda will be: Annexation problems, retirement for city employees, capital improvement programs, off street parking, improvement of a c t s, sales tax.

Mayor Believes Redistricting Suit Would be Futile

Mayor Florian Boyd today termed plans of redistricting proponents to go to court again as "silly," as the decision was made by the voters of Palm Springs and could be presented to them again, if desired, in six months.

"I think it is very silly to go through this thing again, in view of the recent decision by the voters," Boyd said. "But, I necessary, I am sure that a majority of council will be in favor of fighting the suit."

Herbert Hass, chairman of the redistricting organization, previously had announced plans to file suit as soon as possible to force the city council to declare the redistricting ordinance legal, as it received a majority vote although not the required three-fourth margin.

Boyd said that he could not be a party to any such action, as it "would be a fraud upon the voters." The three-fourths requirement was widely publicized, and could not legally be changed after an election, he explained.

"I am not opposed to redistricting in its normal course," the mayor continued. "But I believe action at this time would be forcing the issue as the city is now undergoing a change in its growth and population pattern."

GLASSES FOUND
Finding of a pair of prescription glasses and case was reported to police Friday by Charles Ricker, 960 East Ramon road.

WRISTWATCH LOST
Loss of a wristwatch valued at $150 was reported to police Friday by Mrs. Chester Moores, Portland, Oregon.

JOHN DREYER WINNER IN BASEBALL CONTEST

John Dreyer, 16-year-old Junior at Palm Springs high school, is the grand prize winner of the Name the Spring Training League contest conducted in Palm Springs, Yuma, El Centro and Brawley.

His winning entry, which will be used as the official name of the league, is "Desert Coast League."

ANNOUNCEMENT of his winning the grand prize of $100 in merchandise as well as a season pass to all Pacific Coast League games, was made at the first Amateur contest conducted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Plaza Theater Friday night.

Dreyer was presented with the season pass, which is an official Seattle Rainier "Scout's"

Other Sites Under Study by Council

Price is Major Consideration in Plan for Course

City of Palm Springs has started investigation of other sites for a municipal golf course, to supplement its original choice in Section 26. Mayor Florian Boyd announced Saturday.

Price difficulty was encountered in Section 26 when several Indian land owners stipulated a minimum price of $3,000 per acre, making the total land cost over $400,000. Council, however, voted to proceed with negotiations after approval of a sale was received from the Secretary of the Interior, but this plan now is altered as Leonard Hill, area director Bureau of Indian Affairs, has notified council that a price agreement will have to be reached before approval is sought.

Smoke Tree home owners had agreed to assist council with preliminary financing of the property, before the $3,000 minimum was established. It is now believed by council that the proposed price will discourage many of the original proponents of the Section 26 location.

"The anticipated price is the major factor in the investigation of other properties," Mayor Boyd said. "Other properties, equally as suitable, can be acquired at a lower cost per acre."

City Manager R.W. Peterson said that the golf course proposal will be on the agenda for council consideration at its next meeting March 1.

Desert County Backers Start Speaking Drive

Desert County, Inc., representatives have started addressing groups throughout this area. President Ted Smith of Rancho Mirage, announced.

Brochures describing the aims and reasons for the organization will be mailed to all residents of the affected area as the first step in an educational campaign, with the talks supplementing this information.

Two appearances are scheduled in Desert Hot Springs this week, tonight before the Toastmasters Club, and Thursday noon at the meeting of the Rotary club.

Addresses last week were at meetings of the Palm Springs Rotary Club; Desert Trailer Association; and the Coachella Valley Board of Realtors at Indio.

Brochures are being distributed at the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival to acquaint visitors, as well as residents, with inequities that exist in this county.

Desert County supporters are now being organized in Blythe and Desert Center, Smith said.

'CLOSED DOOR' SESSIONS — Forty-four percent of all congressional committee meetings in 1953 were closed door sessions according to V. M. Newton, Jr. of the Tampa Tribune, who addressed the recent meeting here of the National Editorial Association. Some congressmen say one thing about freedom of the press but practice another, Newton told the editors. After learning of this situation, Newton, who is chairman of Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity's national committee on freedom of information, wrote to 92 active congressmen asking if they favored open meetings. Of the 62 who replied only 35 were unreservedly in favor of open sessions.

One of the senators who expressed himself in favor of open sessions was William D. Jenner of Indiana, chairman of the Senate Rules Committee which was then conducting hearings on the proposed changes in Senate rules which allowed secret proceedings. Newton explained, however, that most of those who testify before Senator Jenner's committee were politicians. No representative of the free press has yet testified before the Indiana senator's committee on the right of the American people to know all the facts of their government and the committee is still holding secret sessions. Newton explained that he agreed with President Truman and President Eisenhower that information which might endanger national security should be withheld but that the presidential directives were being abused.

One of the replies which Newton received was from Senator Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin who was then chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee and who said in part, "I have found a cloak of secrecy and mystery being arbitrarily spread over information which should have been made completely public. Inasmuch as it did not, in the slightest, infringe on the security of the United States." Senator Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota had this comment to make, "In my opinion it's time to break down this marble door of closed door session of the Senate Foreign Relations committee and deal squarely and openly with the American people through the medium of the American press."

Referring to the secret negotiations at Geneva last year over Indonesia conducted by Secretary of State Dulles, Newton declared that the time has come for the American people to "insist that all of our diplomatic negotiations be conducted on top of the table for all to see and for the force of American opinion to be exerted on the rest of the world in behalf of free government and the dignity of man."

As readers will likely recall it has long been my contention that secret or off-the-record meetings are not only contrary to our democratic form of government but undermine the public's confidence in their public officials. The discouraging part of it is that so few people attend meetings of their public bodies except when matters directly affecting them are going to be discussed. This makes it easy for our public officials to get into the habit of believing that their constituents are not interested in what goes on in either open meetings or behind closed doors.

FEARLESS FEMALE — One of the many interesting women editors who attended the NEA meeting was Mrs. Mabel Norris Reese of the Mount Dora (Florida) Topic, who became a storm center in two racial incidents in the central Florida community which her newspaper serves and which brought nation-wide attention. Mrs. Reese is a strong believer in the importance of forthright editorials and thinks that editors should key their comments to "What is right" and not "Who is right."

Because of her determination to oppose demagoguery and anything she believes to be discriminating against any human being, Mrs. Reese became a storm center in the racial issue and was threatened in numerous ways. A cross was burned in her front yard and "KKK" was painted on the windows of her home. Her newspaper office was reduced to shambles one night and things got so bad that she even had to resort to carrying a gun but she held firm to her convictions even though some merchants stopped advertising in her paper. She summed up her position like this, "You might suffer if you go on gritting your teeth over a belief in 'what is right' but if you don't you are letting down the very essence of Americanism. Your cash register may jingle merrily but what good will that do if one day you find that your freedom has starved on your doorstep. Freedom is your duty to defend in your community for a nation can die bit by bit, community by community."

Hatred against Mrs. Reese by certain elements in her community will smolder for a long time but she will continue to defend what she believes to be right no matter what the cost. It was an inspiration and pleasure to meet a woman with such courage and determination.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

A Wall Street broker, slave to his work, saw his wife off to the country and stayed away from other women for almost three hours. Then, naturally, he couldn't stand it any longer and called up his very private secretary. "Put on your glad rags," he ordered, "and meet me at the Stork in forty minutes." When he donned the trousers of his own glad rags, he found in the right pocket a note in Friend Wife's handwriting. "Caught you!" it read. "Is this trip necessary?"

Quote from "Hints on Etiquette and the Usages of Society," published in London in 1834: "Well-bred people arrive as nearly the appointed dinner-hour as they can. It is very vulgar and obvious assumption of importance to arrive half an hour behind time. Besides, this gives eight or ten hungry and impatient people an irresistible opportunity to discuss your foibles and tear your reputation to shreds."

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

How to Overcome Obstacles

One of my good friends is a man I literally bumped into one morning years ago.

I had a roommate on a train going into Cleveland, Ohio. If you've ever traveled in a roomette, you know how small they are. You almost have to back in and out of them. Well, I was backing out of mine and this other fellow was backing out of his and we backed into each other. "I beg your pardon," I said.

"Oh, that's all right," he said. "I got bumped into a lot. It doesn't make any difference. I'm sorry you got bumped into by me." I answered sympathetically.

"It doesn't matter where I go," he told me, "or what I do, it's always the wrong thing. I put my foot into it and make a mess of everything."

I didn't quite know how to react to all this negativism in a stranger, so I commented on the good morning. "The morning was lovely," he said, "in this part of the country it may look bright in the early morning, but that may often mean rain by ten o'clock."

His conversation went on in this dismal vein and eventually we got around to introducing ourselves to each other. "The was no diner on that train and it was late getting into the station, so I remarked, 'I'm getting hungry, aren't you?'"

"No," he said, "I haven't any appetite."

I urged him to join me, in any case, and offered to buy the breakfast for him. He said the breakfast restaurant wasn't very good, but I knew better and finally he decided to come along. We had a fine breakfast together and, when we finished, he asked me, "How come you think optimistically about everything?"

I answered by asking him why he was so pessimistic. He said that everything was going badly and that was why. I told him that he had the card before the horse and that things went badly because he was pessimistic. We talked about it a while and I gave him some literature on right thinking which I had with me. I tried to get across to him the techniques of positive thinking.

"I have a lot of big obstacles," he protested. "They're like mountains. I can't get around them."

"Yes, you can," I insisted. "You can not only get around them; you can blast them out of existence." I reminded him of that exciting statement in the Bible: "If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done." "If every time you come up against one of these mountains in your path, you just whirl those old words out and believe in them, you will destroy your obstacles with the powerful help of God. Then things will go better for you," I said.

It was some time before I saw this man again, but he told me that our conversation in that station restaurant had marked a real turning point in his life. "I went home and started studying the Bible. I found that passage you gave me," he said, "and lots of others just as good. It took me quite a while to learn how to use them against an obstacle, but now I just throw one of those passages at it and give it real effort as well and down it goes. Life now is good. I feel fine and my future prospects look just wonderful. I'm also trying to help others to discover this amazing way of living."

Here was a man who had been thoroughly made over. How? By the most dynamic, creative force in the world—faith operating in the human mind. And there isn't an individual reading these words who can't have the same thing done for himself, provided he will have humble faith. So, take a straight, fearless look at your problems and the obstacles you face. Then hurl the great challenge of faith at them and see how quickly they come tumbling down.

Safety Tips

HIGHWAY TOLL DROPS

The lives of 207 persons were spared on the streets and highways in unincorporated areas of California during 1954 when compared with 1953.

Final fatality tabulations by the California Highway Patrol indicate 2135 deaths in unincorporated areas last year compared to 2342 fatalities during 1953, a reduction of 8.8 per cent.

"It is significant that while this saving of lives was being achieved, traffic law enforcement was being intensified," Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell pointed out.

"Unimproved strength of the Highway Patrol was increased by nine per cent during 1954, and there was an increase of 10.9 per cent in the total number of traffic citations issued. Traffic volume increased 2.1 per cent during 1954.

"These facts indicate that increased enforcement is the major factor in the saving of lives on California highways," he declared.

California Highway Patrol citations for 1954 totaled 531,504, compared to 524,333 in 1953. With 6,200,000 licensed drivers in the state, citations for traffic law violations in unincorporated areas were issued at the rate of one for every eleven motor vehicle operators during the year.

"Most violations are due to impatience or lack of awareness of threatened danger and are eliminated by proper attitude on the part of all motorists," the Commissioner reminded.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

I do not own a hatchet. I have no cherry tree. So I can take it easy And with the truth be free.

Don't you believe that, I'm the most careful guy with the truth that you could find. Not that I have any moral scruples about trifling with the truth. It's just that I am the most unconvincing prevaricator in Palm Springs. I always get tripped up when I have to tell the facts.

WE HAD TWO elections within a week, redistricting and school bonds which gives rise to two stories I heard yesterday. Seems that a woman went to the Thrifty liquor counter Tuesday, the day the people of Palm Springs put such a tremendous O.K. on the school bond issue. She asked for a can of beer. "No can do," said the clerk. "Can't sell potables on election day." An argument ensued. "Why?" she asked and they went round and round. Finally the exasperated woman said: "I can't see why you won't sell me a can of beer. I am not going to drink it. I just want it to set my hair!"

THE OTHER STORY dealing with election day has to do with a popular local dispenser of that which gives a glow when taken wisely and a hang-over when dealt with without due caution. This man has every Monday as his day off. So, the election was on Tuesday and he had two days in a row. Imagine his surprise on coming to work Wednesday morning to find a placard, in big red letters, on the door. "Welcome Home, Pat, all is forgiven." It was signed, "The Homeless 400." While he was still on the subject of the spots which could cause spots before your eyes, some one told me that in a certain night club, the manager came in. Went over to the mirror back of the counter and looked at himself. To a puzzled waitress he said: "Just wanted to see if I was here," and walked out.

AS YOU MAY have noted by the piece that tops today's piece, this is the week we celebrate and observe the birthday of George Washington. Since there is some dispute about the date of his birth because the calendar was revamped about that time, I am not going to venture a guess at how old he would be now. More than 39, I'm sure. But George, besides thinking quick and telling his dad, "I did it, I cannot tell a lie," he also was known for his bright wit. Once at a dinner, a fire on the hearth at his back was too hot. He complained, according to the old yarn. "But," said a servant, "I thought it behooved a general to stand fire." "Yes," replied Washington, "but it behooved a general to receive it from the rear." O.K., so now I have been timely and paid my respects to the father of his country. But I often wonder: What if everyone went around chopping down cherry trees just so that they could admit it? What would happen to the Manhattan trade?

MARJ POHL, well known Palm Springs publicist and chief tub-thumper for the Racquet club, came in with a bright idea the other day. She said the dog-leash law should be repealed. The reason? Too many rabbits! Since the dogs are kept on leash or in their own back yards, they cannot cavort in the open and chase rabbits with delighted yelps. Result, the rabbits are coming back and the petunias and other low plants are being devoured. She would have the dogs roam and thus protect our gardens. What's more, she said, you can again hear the mournful howl of coyotes at night. They, too, are getting bolder since there are no business-like canines to chase them back to the mountains. One was told that shiny objects hung on a string above the bushes would scare away the rabbits. But the bunnies just used the bright mirror-like discs as mirrors to preen.

SPEAKING OF SERVICE, the Desert Museum did a bit of Chamber of Commerce work last week which gave one visiting family a big thrill. Thursday a tourist came into the museum and asked where to go and what to see. He especially wanted to see some wild animals. So Dr. C. E. Smith, Museum director, recommended Chino Canyon. Only as a POSSIBLE place to see the fauna. The next day the visitor and his wife hiked up Chino canyon. The third day they were back at the Museum, full of bounce and enthusiasm, as Dr. Smith described it. They had seen 12, count 'em, 12, Bighorn Sheep on the south wall of the canyon. "His stay in town was a huge success," commented Dr. Smith, "and he is planning to come back and bring his friends. Maybe the Chamber of Commerce should present an award to those sheep."

AND THEN here's another item which was told me yesterday. A visitor was being solicited for membership in a local club. He turned it down. "I would not belong to a club which would have me as a member," he explained. As I said a little while ago, you can get as much wisdom out of trade magazines and house or garden publications for which you hand out anyway from 15 to 50 cents. For instance, in the magazine, Sales Management, I saw this bit by T. Harry Thompson: Definition of falsies—a sort of hope chest.

It throws a new light on the victim's personality—and biography . . . Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, Britain's No. 1 war hero, is ailing. Friends very worried.

A Fifth Avenue attorney has a client who wants to start proceedings against the estate of the late Serge Rubinstein. She's a Parisian singer who claims her son is the murdered financier's true heir. . . . The Navy isn't talking officially about the number of Russian submarines sighted in American waters (Pacific and Atlantic) recently. The big fight in a Hollywood bungalow a few mornings ago is the talk of the movie colony. The ex-husband of a movie beauty dropped by to use her as a punching bag, and she summoned a rugged film hero to rescue her. The actor (cause of the split some months ago) hastened over and demonstrated his muscle work just as gorgeously in real life as they do in those A Westerns.

Stripper Ann Corio is concentrating on polo playing. Billy Nichols . . . Jeff Schwartz, son of a wealthy produce family, has popped the popular question to Sherree North . . . NEW YORK CAVALCADE

By Louis Sobol

SNAPSHOTS AT RANDOM: The winter exodus is in full swing as the more effete citizens go into frantic flight from the chilly blasts in New Yorktown—and the restaurants and night club hosts send up their annual lament, finding postcards from customers in sun-drenched resorts, poor substitutes for empty tables.

Principal events for those who seek diversion at night were the premieres of "Cinemas Holiday" and "The Desperate Hours," and the debut of a member of the Arthur Godfrey family, Marion Marlowe, at the Cotillion Room, also the opening of a new room in the Ambassador Hotel—the Men's Bar on which occasion, paradoxically enuf, the women outnumbered the men . . .

"Cinemas Holiday" is still a thrill to eye and ear and emotions and the ride in a jet plane and the low flight over the Alps are unforgettable experiences. It takes you a few minutes to recover and realize that actually it's only something done with cameras while you're sitting safely in a theater seat . . . Among the First Nighters we spotted—Cole Porter, Mike Todd with Evelyn Keyes, Magg and Clyde New, the Jinx, Mary Healy and Peter Lind Hayes, Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Sr., Randolph Hearst, and the Richard E. Berlins, Celeste Holm, Novelist Elliott Arnold, New Hampshire's Governor, Lane Dwinell, and others . . .

Manhattan's new center in the mid-40s—the city's own March of Diamonds . . . In Dinty Moore's, Hollywood's Norman Krasna and his wife, the beautiful Erie, and at another table, another humorous writer, S. J. Perelman. This famed eating place, a favorite with men and women, is run by two women—the boss, Mary Moore—and the head-waitress, Dolores, a former musical comedy principal . . . A crowded night in 21—finds Joyce Mathews at leisure, dinner with Billy Rose, Wendy Barrie with Winthrop Gardner, Cary Latimer and Phillip Stevens, celebrating his birthday this evening. A cozy group in the George M. Cohan corner of the Plaza's Oak room—Margaret Truman, Adlai Stevenson, ex-Sen. Bill Benton and Adlai's law partner, Bill Blair . . . Most of the town crowds into Val Rubio's apartment for a big evening—and when we ask the charming hostess just what is the occasion, she replies: "Occasion? No occasion. I like people around me" . . . Marion Marlowe's opening at the Cotillion room attracts Mrs. Walter Slezak, Jolie Gabor, Gloria DeHaven, the Jack Barrys, Margie and Gwenevere—also the Shah and general manager of her enterprises . . . When Vice-pres. & Mrs. Nixon return from their Latin-American tour, they'll discover the White House has whipped up a new itinerary for them: Europe and the Middle East with a Spring shoving-off date.

Many baby sitters now charge $3 for Friday nights, only $2 for Saturday nights—because on Saturday nights the TV programs are better . . . When Sherry Britton opened at the Club Monaco, the biggest bouquet of flowers bore a card from baseball slugger Ted Williams.

Her studio is trying hard to kill the old modeling pictures of Virginia Leigh, hottest of the new crop of Hollywood starlets. Some of the photos are too, too Diorish . . . One of the unpublished reasons for the visit of the Shah and Empress of Iran: medical consultations on their chances of having an heir.

A singer described as sensational is due to pop on the disc horizon this Spring. He's a handsome—also rich—Brazilian named Francisco Ferreira . . . "The Tender Trap," which closed so abruptly on Broadway, is doing well in the nation's capital . . . Gotham detects classy Angelo "Mike" Morici, the Yarrow slaying suspect, as "the weeper type."

A little craft shop in Greenwich Village, the Bon Bazar, is the only place in town with a Valentine window designed by Charles Addams—hearts, flowers and monsters . . . Yankee pitching rookie Dick Lindsay is catching Beverly Johnson on the arm . . . Arthur Van Horn has dropped the pseudonym "Dean Cameron," which he used on his morning radio show. Now he's Art on all programs.

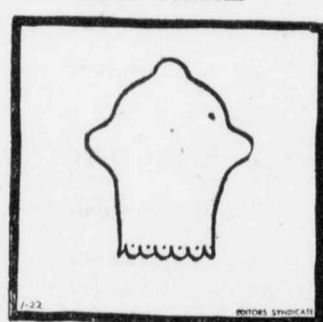

The most interesting customer at one Eighth Ave. bar is a beagle hound who stands on his hind legs and plays the pin ball machine. (Racks up quite a score, too.) The Artie Shaw-Doris Dowling problems are getting the psychoanalysis treatment . . . Donald O'Connor's great new passion is Gloria Noble, who appears with him on the video screens . . . "SLIP COVER FOR A STRAW-BERRY SUNDAE"

This Doodle illustrates only one of the many services instituted by Drug Stores. No modern Apothecary is complete without a used-car counter, a TV Repair Department and a bulldozer parts section. We can eat an 8-course dinner at the Fountain and our children can educate themselves by looking at the covers of the Mickey Spillane books in the Drug Store Library. And today's Pharmacist must not only be able to decipher a Doctor's prescription; he must know exactly how much mayonnaise he can put in the chicken salad without spoiling the taste of the tuna fish. If things get much worse we'll soon be forced to buy our aspirins and phenobarbital from Hardware Stores.

Striking Paint Job Attracting Attention

One of the most striking and interesting decorative paint jobs in Palm Springs this season is at the New Palm Canyon Lodge on North Palm Canyon drive. It is literally wrapped in cellophane, having been decorated inside and out in the new sun-proof plastic paint, known as Venyl-Crete sold exclusively at the National Paint store, 220 North Indian Avenue.

Palm Springs Rotarians Join Golden Anniversary

Golden Anniversary of Rotary International will be celebrated by the Palm Springs Rotary club at a luncheon to be held in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi at noon Wednesday.

Featured will be the premiere showing of a film made through the efforts of the local Rotary club. This film, which will promote interest in Palm Springs, will be loaned and distributed for showing throughout the entire nation. It is a Golden Anniversary project of the Palm Springs Club.

Fifty years ago this month the first of Rotary clubs was founded in Chicago. Since then the membership has grown to exceed 400,000 in number.

Burglars Raid 2 Local Firms

Two burglaries occurred in the early morning hours Friday, with loot consisting of $40 from the Ye Quality Bake Shoppe, 446 South Indian avenue, and one dress and 20 sweaters taken from the Palm Springs Cleaners, 140 South Indian avenue. The bakery theft was discovered at 3:40 a.m., by owner Anton Wacek, and the other theft was noticed by Detective Bob White during his investigation. Entry to both places was made by prying open the doors.

Following is the first publication of a poem written by a local Rotarian, C. Ronald Ellis. It is being translated into scores of languages by VISA (Visiting International Students Association) for world-wide distribution and publication, and is scheduled to appear in The Rotarian, national magazine.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL
by C. Ronald Ellis
For East was East and West was West

Not many years ago,
Till men of courage, whose hearts knew best,
Proved it is not so.

They borrowed the lesson the rainbows teach
In radiant splendor above;
"All colors bring joy," the rainbows preach.
"And joy in a heart brings love."

And love in the heart is a seed that grows
In an ever entwining vine
Embracing all colors of men here below
And guided by the Divine.

Bridging the "Seven Seas of Life"
This beautiful arc, so grand,
Spans the "chasms of hateful strife"
Till there is no foreign land.
For the Wheels of Rotary, rolling along,
Brings tidings of brotherly
love;
And, the symbols of Rotary's
gladsome song
Is seen in the rainbows above.

Clouters' Loot in Raid on Car Fixed at $9,776

Car clouters struck it rich early Wednesday morning when they took furs and clothing valued at $9,776 from the car of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Edward Calhoun, Penlynn, Pennsylvanian, while it was parked on Granvia Valmonte.

The locked car was entered by forcing open the left front window, police reported. It is believed that the thieves were frightened away as other valuable items including golf clubs and other clothing were left in the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun had stopped here while enroute home after an extended vacation.

Add Three from Desert Area to Grand Jury List

Names of three Palm Springs residents were drawn in Judge O. K. Morton's superior court last week to fill up the panel for the 1955 county grand jury after 12 of the original 36 were dismissed for various reasons. Added to the panel were Louis Dubin and Henry Weinberger of Palm Springs and Albert Peck of Thunderbird.

Among the 12 excused were Russell Wade and Mrs. Eleanor W. Larrabee.

The 12 new candidates and the 18 remaining on the panel will be examined in superior court March 3 and the 19 who will serve on the grand jury, chosen at that time.

Initial Production Wins Applause for Players Stage

Sheer drama, realistically good and presages a good attendance this coming weekend when the play will have another 3-night run, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Initial production of the Palm Springs Players Stage, it was a creditable performance, with Verkina Cross giving an outstanding performance in the role of "Serafina," and Martin Beck equally good as the male lead. Pat Atkian did an exceptional job as the daughter and Clay Stearns gave his usual capable character delineation.

Set design and decor by William Cornfield were carefully executed taking the audience right into house of the little dressmaker, and admirably presenting the feeling of a Sicilian home on the Gulf Coast near New Orleans.

The play was produced and directed by Martin Beck and Lee Krikorian, with each actor giving a performance that reflected the care that had been lavished on the play.

Audience reaction was very

Final Turf Club Hearing Feb. 23

County planning commission will hold its second and final public hearing on the Desert Turf Club's application for rezoning of its proposed quarter-horse race track site, at 10 a.m. Wednesday, in the county courthouse.

First hearing was last Tuesday at the Wares Memorial building here, with no one appearing in opposition. The commission is expected to reach a decision following the hearing, and present its recommendation to county supervisors the following Monday.

Supervisors, under the law, must also hold a public hearing on the rezoning.

Green Hornets Stage Big Rally but Bow, 48-55

Rallying from an 18-point deficit to within two counts of a tie at one time, the Green Hornets threw a scare into the Army Engineers before losing 55 to 48.

The Army had led 11 to 4 at the quarter, and then took a 28 to 13 at halftime before the Green Hornets rallied for 25 points in the third period to draw up to within two points, 40 to 38.

Bob Clinton netted 24 points for the Green Hornets and Joe Strange had 12. Bailey was high for the Army with 16.

Bees Lose to Hemet by 52-34 Score

The Hemet Bees made a clean sweep of their series with Palm Springs this season by downing the Papooses 52 to 34 Friday night. First score was 52 to 34.

Steve Cross with 21 points sparked the Bulldog attack over the overpowered Village quintet. Hemet jumped off to a 14 to 1 lead in the first quarter, made it 24 to 12 at halftime, and 32 to 19 after three periods.

Eugene Prieto led the way for the Indians with 12 points followed by Skip Martin's eight.

Know Your Palm Springs-Seattle Club

BILL BRENNER is another versatile Seattle Rainier who will report to spring training at Palm Springs, and his duty with the Rainiers will be three-fold. Brenner is a player-coach, who can double as a pitcher or catcher. However, his chief accomplishments have been as a hurler and in the past several years he has been one of the top moundsmen in the Western International League. Because of his experience, Brenner will work with the young pitchers and catchers. In the last three seasons, he has never failed to win over 20 games, and in 1954 turned in his best effort with 21 wins and only nine losses.

GEORGE SCHMEES, another familiar face to Palm Springs fans, returns to the Rainiers this year with a stout battle on his hands to retain his rightfield position. However, Schmees, who had his best year with Seattle in 1954, hitting .297, hopes that 1955 will be his top season, bettering the campaign of 1951, when he hit .328 for Hollywood. Schmees was an outstanding athlete in both baseball and football at San Jose State college, and played on the powerful Fleet City Navy grid team during the war years. He once tried pitching, but prefers to play the outfield.

Hemet Defeats Indians, 51 to 39

Exhibiting their usual spark and teamwork, the Hemet Bulldogs Friday night rolled up a 51 to 39 decision over the Palm Springs Indians.

Coach Ralph Watt's squad was continually harrassing the Bulldog squad, but was unable to match the shooting. Due to the expert guarding of Indian Jim Judd, Ray Sims of Hemet, league leading scorer was held to only four field goals but connected with seven gift tosses for a total of 15 points.

The scoring pace was set by Jerry Bunch of Hemet with 18, while Charlie Jordan again led the Indians with 13.

Hemet captured a 14 to 6 advantage in the first period, made it 21 to 14 at halftime, and increased the margin to 44 to 31 after three quarters.

Palm Springs led in rebounding, with John Laster again showing the way.

MORRISON ON GOLF

Avoid Locking in the Backswing

By ALEX J. MORRISON

Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

THE SEASON for new resolutions is rough on those who are inclined to be honest with themselves. Such a person realizes many things of importance in this field of self-honesty.

Resolutions are fine if their applications range from the highest spiritual things to the lowliest of material items.

Seemingly the full range is involved with every move a golfer makes when he has a club in his hands. We don't believe that any person ever picks up a club without having some definite desire or intention of doing certain things with that club.

Likewise, he or she doesn't start doing those things without definite notions of how they want to do them.

THIS REPRESENTS the beginning of the cycle of planning, executing and reviewing.

The second stage or execution of the player's desires and intentions is critical indeed. It records the things that actually take place in the player's mind and body while swinging the club. The third stage is largely devoted to the player's reactions to his performances.

It is in this matter of reactions, in our humble opinion, that the individual demonstrates his ability or willingness to be honest with himself.

He is a thoroughly honest golfer if he admits: "I looked up and sliced out of bounds mainly because I gave in to the fear of doing just that."

If he concedes: "I missed that shot by trying to hit the ball as I started the club back or during my backswing," you can be sure he will soon overcome the fault of tightening up before swinging down.

Such individuals do not have to wait for a particular time of the year before undertaking corrections in their mental and physical processes. Most other individuals will go on kidding themselves in and out of season, in the backswing or downswing.

Chuck's Quint Takes Over 2nd Spot in League

Chuck's Shell moved into second place in the City Recreation League Wednesday evening with a 52 to 34 rout of the Desert Nite Hawks, while the Green Hornets were dropping a decision to the Army quintet.

First half score was close with the winners holding a 12 to 8 margin at the quarter, and maintaining the four-point spread in the second period, 22 to 18. Chuck's Shell then moved ahead 34 to 27 after three periods, and forged on to win in the final quarter.

Jim Brown, star center, paced the winners with nine field goals, while Wilfred Lucas topped the Nite Hawks with 16 points.

CAROL WRATHALL, Palm Springs high school junior, demonstrates portable parking board designed by George Bond, superintendent of transportation for Palm Springs Unified School district, a feature of a new film now released for driver education classes in schools.

George Bond's Educational Parking Film Now Released

A new educational sound film on parallel parking was released recently by Progressive Pictures of Oakland, California. Author and producer of this film is George L. Bond, superintendent of transportation and driver education instructor in the Palm Springs Unified School district.

This 16 mm sound film is specifically designed to teach students the A. B. C's of parking correctly. "A" indicating the Backing Angle, and "B" the Centering of Car. It does this simply and easily, thus eliminating many repeated classroom lessons with the result that many students are able to park in their first attempt. Some of the features in the film show a full classroom demonstration, a complete street demonstration and the proper use of the modern portable parking board.

Bond Issue Vote to be Canvassed Tomorrow Noon

The Board of Education will hold an adjourned meeting at 1 p.m. tomorrow when they will canvass ballots cast at last week's bond election. A record vote approved the bond issue in a 8 to 1 majority, with 1833 voters going to the polls. Fifteen votes were nullified.

Also on the agenda for the Tuesday afternoon meeting is the reconsideration by the Trustees of the action on payment to Williams, Williams and Williams, architects; and H. H. Foster, contractor, for the improvements to the high school plant. At the last regular meeting, payment for the job was refused by the board, pending study of reports of an inspection committee.

Ray Sorum, speaking for the trustees, said that the board is going to watch very carefully the entire building program under the new $2,125,000 bond issue, and every building and improvement is going to be completed exactly to plans and specifications.

Making the inspection on the high school job were: Ray Sorum, Paul Traver, Haig Harris, Dr. Arthur Hoff, Paul Summers, Stewart Williams, H. H. Foster and Frank Hickey who was the inspector on the job.

The high school plant is currently undergoing a complete paint job and should be completed soon.

MUSEUM

By DR. C. E. SMITH
Desert Museum Director

Schedule of programs for the week:
Monday: "Bright New World" Tuesday: "Peace River" and "Blossoming Desert."
Wednesday: At 8 p.m. in the Museum, Mr. Winfield Line, former President of the Museum, will narrate his colored motion pictures taken in Europe. This program is open to Museum members only.
Friday: "Northwest Empire" Saturday: Field trip. Details in the Museum.
Saturday: At 8 p.m. in Frances Stevens School Auditorium, Cactus Slim and Pat Moorten return with "Seldom Seen Mexico, Picture Tour No. 4." This is the opportunity for the newcomers to town to become acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Cactus.

Hoff, superintendent, Paul G. Summers, business manager and Henry Greeley, principal, of the Palm Springs schools. Leading lady for the picture is Carol Wrathall, a student at the high school who so ably demonstrated without flaw the art of parallel parking using cars provided by Ben Cowan, Palm Springs distributor for Ford cars and who furnishes each year, the dual-control driver education car for driver education classes in the Palm Springs high school. Weyland Reynolds, Ray Beezley, Winnie Hammond, teachers and Helen Portney, Larry Paul, Mary Paul and Alvin La Salle, students, appeared in the film also.

BOND GAVE HIGH PRAISE to the assistance he received in compiling this film to the Automobile Club of Southern California who made many suggestions for improving the script. The state department of education and its visual department, office of their services by having George W. Ormsby, consultant for bureau of audio visual education, come to Palm Springs to work with Bond in directing the final action in the film since the department of education found much merit in the original script.

terming it of "primary importance to maintain the security of the perimeter of our Far Eastern commitments."

"There must be no compromise with totalitarian nations or a coalition of those groups," he said. "This situation at one time was completely within the control and under the command of General MacArthur who has now become of such tremendous importance that the free nations of the world are spending billions of dollars and sleepless nights in the hope that they may win the cold war and a temporary peace."

Only possible solution now, he said, is establishment between nations of the "right to live in freedom of thought and action to the end that a permanent peace can be maintained by a powerful international military force under the control and direction of the United Nations, that is equal to maintaining a permanent peace by the strength of its military force."

Admiral Harrison was a prisoner of war for three years during World War II, being captured at Corregidor. During his early confinement it was discovered that he was furnishing the Philippine underground with ship movement information and he was then transferred to Fort Santiago prison where he underwent tortures devised by the Spanish and improved upon by the Japanese. He was one of only three survivors and still has not regained his complete health.

He was named honorary commander of the American Expeditionary Forces, Inc., at the national convention of the 5,000 members, held in Houston, Texas, last summer, following the death of General Wainwright.

Driver Cited as Result Accident

Henry Gonzales, 36, 316 South El Segundo, was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated following an accident at 9:10 p.m. Friday, in the 200 block of North Indian avenue, involving his car and one driven by Joe Wallom, 32, 466 North El Segundo.

Wallom stopped his car preparatory to parking, when it was struck in the rear by Gonzales' vehicle, officers reported.

Damage to Wallom's car was estimated at $50, and to Gonzales' $100.

Dr. Giles Brown on Forum Series Thursday Night

"Skirting the Oriental Iron Curtain" is the topic of the lecture to be given by Dr. Giles T. Brown at Frances Stevens school auditorium Thursday at 8 p.m. Dr. Brown has just returned from an intensive tour of Asia during which he traveled over thirty thousand miles and interviewed people from all walks of life. His itinerary followed the oriental Iron Curtain from the Near East through Pakistan, India, Burma, Thailand, Hong Kong, and Japan. While in these sensitive areas where Communist pressure meets the Free World, Dr. Brown has personal conferences with the president of Lebanon, the prime minister of Pakistan, the vice president of India and former Indian ambassador to Russia, the prime minister of Thailand, and many other leaders. During his stay in Hong Kong, he was able to learn of the trends sweeping Asia since Hong Kong has become a major listening post for the free world. While in Pakistan, Dr. Brown was able to study the problem of Kashmir first hand and to go to the threshold of that explosive spot which may bring war.

This is the last of a series of four public forums presented by the Adult Education Department of the Unified School District.

Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

Research Homes Draw Throngs

Attracted by the revolutionary new concept in home-building, that characterizes Boswell Alliance company's new famous "Research Homes" in the popular Alessandro Heights district of Banning, hundreds of home-seekers continue to come from many southern California communities each weekend to inspect this community of 37 three and four-bedroom homes that are available to veterans for nothing down except small down payments, and to nonvets on easy FHA terms, builders report. Visiting hours are from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week.

Conceived in "idea clinics" by noted architects, builders and color consultants who pooled their creative resources, and came up with this low-cost, ingenious luxury home designed to have a continuing high market value, each home is built on a roomy plot that averages 70 x 120, builders cite.

THE DESERT SUN

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Washington's birthday . . . always makes you think . . . of throwing dollars across the Potomac . . . chopping down cherry trees . . . and not telling lies . . . Just to put a little local color into it . . . we might toss a rain check from the Racquet Club over Tahquitz River . . . skip the tree-chopping altogether . . . because we love palm trees . . . and tone down the story about the fabulous Ball . . . by merely saying . . . "Here was a party to end all parties" . . . I sometimes think that . . . the Father of His Country . . . looks so calm in his Gilbert Stuart portraits . . . because he never filled out a simplified income tax report . . . or ate too many hors d'oeuvres . . . or lived in a world that knew the atom bomb . . . And a Happy Washington's Birthday to you!

A flashback to the recent Thunderbird Invitational . . . was the party given at The Tennis Club Friday night . . . by Jock Williamson . . . Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Milt Hicks (Milt for his efficient job as tournament chairman . . . and the Monty Moncriefs (Monty was Jock's partner in the winning Pro-Am team) . . . Golf balls, pennants and score cards for place cards . . . were used with garden roses . . . to decorate the dinner table . . . In the party . . . which gathered first for cocktails in the Venetian Room . . . were Milt and Maggie Hicks, the Moncriefs, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hines . . . the J. Ross Clarks, Johnny Dawsons, Harold Hicks, Helen Detwiler . . . the Fred Kehlets, Janice Chiquoine and the Andrew Houseleys (house-guests of Moncriefs) . . . Cactus Slim Moorten who underwent major surgery . . . Saturday at the Indio hospital . . . is recovering nicely . . . and was expected to be home by today . . .

A Booster

A clipping has come to my desk from . . . "The Bachelor" column in the San Francisco Chronicle . . . which gives Palm Springs the benefit of any doubts . . . and boosts the desert . . . quoting O. D. Thomas . . . "peace comes to the hearts of men . . . and pettiness, greed, malice, anger, hatred and envy . . . vanish in the presence of such magnificence" . . . The columnist Malcolm Moulder wrote the column on the sun-drenched terrace of the John Gallois home . . . where he was a houseguest . . . Pretty Sue (Mrs. Carl Phillips, daughter-in-law of Congressman John Phillips . . . and her cute little daughter Wendy . . . were Friday lunching at Town and Country restaurant with Sue's mother Mrs. J. N. Lott of Brentwood . . . who is here for a fortnight's stay at Palm Springs hotel . . . Delia Ransom of Beverly Hills who was here for a few days . . . and Miss Donalde Dean of Los Angeles . . .

Here for a short visit with the C. W. Allison of 1171 San Jacinto Way . . . are Mr. and Mrs. Eli Lilly of Indianapolis (the pharmaceutical family) . . . Mrs. Lilly is the sister of Mr. Allison . . . The entire cast of the TV show "You Bet Your Life" will be guests . . . of Groucho Marx . . . for a weekend at LaQuinta . . .

Village Author

Jane Eklund Ball . . . whose second book "Phillipa" is just off the press . . . was a guest on the "Cavalcade of Books" program last Sunday . . . She is a teacher in the Palm Springs high school . . . and her husband Everett handles publicity for El Mirador hotel . . . I have just finished reading the book . . . and find it nostalgic of an earlier Los Angeles . . .

Ned Crawford reports . . . that new members of Palm Springs Ranch Club . . . include Senator and Mrs. George Maypole, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Timm Jr., Bill and Eve Brooks . . . and the Jay Cobbs of Portland . . . who are here for a Palm Springs vacation . . . City of Hope Dinner Set for March 11

City of Hope's swank $100 a couple dinner dance will be held at The Tennis Club on March 11, it was announced this weekend. Mrs. Montague Herbert will be chairman of the black tie event. An impressive list of patrons for this annual benefit for City of Hope includes Messrs. Ray Gilliland, Frank Bennett, Ralph Kiner, J. Ross Clark, E. H. Robertson, Charles Farrell, Paul Trousdale, William B. Malouf, Ned Crawford, Sam Taylor, Lloyd Frank, Harry Joe Brown, Asher Levy, Payne Jennings, Edwin Silverman, Russell Wade, George Wheeler, George Cameron, Walter McManus and Lee Anderson. This benefit affair always presents an exciting array of top name talent and is a glittering spectacle of beautifully groomed women and their escorts in formal attire.

Betrothal of Miss Cummings is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings of 586 Calle Palo Fierro, are announcing the engagement of their daughter Patricia Wynne to Robert W. Beck son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Beck of Palm Springs and Newport Beach. Miss Cummings attended Palm Springs high school and graduated from Immaculate Heart high school in Los Angeles. She is now attending USC and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Her fiancé, a graduate of Whittier high school, is also attending USC and will graduate in June. He is affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi.

Dinner Party

Honoring Mme. Robby Kavanaugh of Beverly Hills . . . who has just returned from a 10 month world tour . . . Charel de Thome hosted a formal dinner party at his Tamarisk road home . . . In Salzburg, Austria Mme. Kavanaugh visited a mutual friend Mrs. Max Reinhardt (Helen Tring famous German actress now head of the Salzburg Fest spieler) . . . At Charel's party were . . . Mrs. Desy Whitney (owner of San Francisco's Cliff House) . . . Elaine C. Elser of Palm Springs . . . Dora Clark of Seal Beach . . . Fred A. Johnson of Los Angeles . . . Stewart and Jerry Hopps have invited a group of long time Villagers . . . to a Steak Fry at the Palm Springs Ranch Club tonight . . . These two are noted for their fun parties . . . and tonight's will be no exception . . . The party honors Bill Powers, Rhode Island's Attorney General . . . who is at the Racquet Club for one of his periodic visits . . .

Delphians Meet on Wednesday

Delphian Society will meet Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the parish hall of St. Paul's in the Desert. Mrs. George Waller, moderator of the day, will present the following speakers, Mesdames Stanley Rosin, William Foster, Tony Burke, Lyle Harper and Paul Traver. The topic for the day is "Life in a Guatemala Indian Village." Weekend guests of Mrs. Harry Clatworthy of San Lorenzo road, were Mrs. C. C. Craig of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Russell Samuels of Los Gatos.

CITY OF HOPE will hold its $100 a couple black tie dinner dance at The Tennis Club on the evening of March 11. Mrs. Montague Herbert, dinner dance chairman, visited the City of Hope at Duarte, where Dr. Keith Kelly is explaining a blood fractionator, while Dr. Alfred Goldman looks on.

Village's Part in Civilian Defense Told to P-TA

Preaching the Civil Defense gospel that "if we are attacked you will have to help yourself . . . you can't call on the Army or the Red Cross," W. L. Roberts, assistant coordinator of the Redlands office of Civil Defense, gave a realistic view of the situation when he addressed Cahulla P-TA on Tuesday evening. While an official decision has not been made yet, Roberts told the 50 parents and teachers at the meeting that a plan is under consideration to make Palm Springs a medical center in case of an all-out attack. In line with the "help yourself" plan, he recommended that each family stock up on sufficient food for an 8-day period; study first aid; and acquire first aid supplies. A question and answer period followed his talk.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. George Morris, and the P-TA president Mrs. Phillip Zantville conducted the meeting which was held in the school cafeteria. Attention was called to the clothing drive which is currently under way and will continue to February 25. Following the program cake and coffee was served by Mrs. Joe Butler and Second and Fourth Grade Room Mothers, Mmes. Mel Ambler, Jerry Bunker, Willard McKinney and Jim Maynard.

Mrs. U. C. Remmel, who has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Risvold of Mesa drive, for a week, left Friday to return to her home in Colorado Springs.

Desert Does Give Member Dinner

A membership dinner for Desert Does and prospective members, will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock at the Elks lodge hall, Ella Olsen, membership chairman announced today. Food is being prepared by a committee and there will be no charge. Mae Arnold is dinner chairman. Strictly a social affair, an evening of cards and entertainment will follow the dinner. Margaret Krysan is president of the Desert Does.

Col. Buddy Fogelson and his wife Greer Garson are back for a month's stay at the Racquet Club.

The Millard Waldheims of St. Louis are here for their annual visit to the Racquet Club.

AT TAMARISK Country Club one sunny day the cameraman caught this smiling someone, Mrs. David Margolis and her daughter Mrs. Robert D. Blashek of Springfield, Ohio. Mrs. Blashek's daughter Betsy is also here visiting her grandparents.

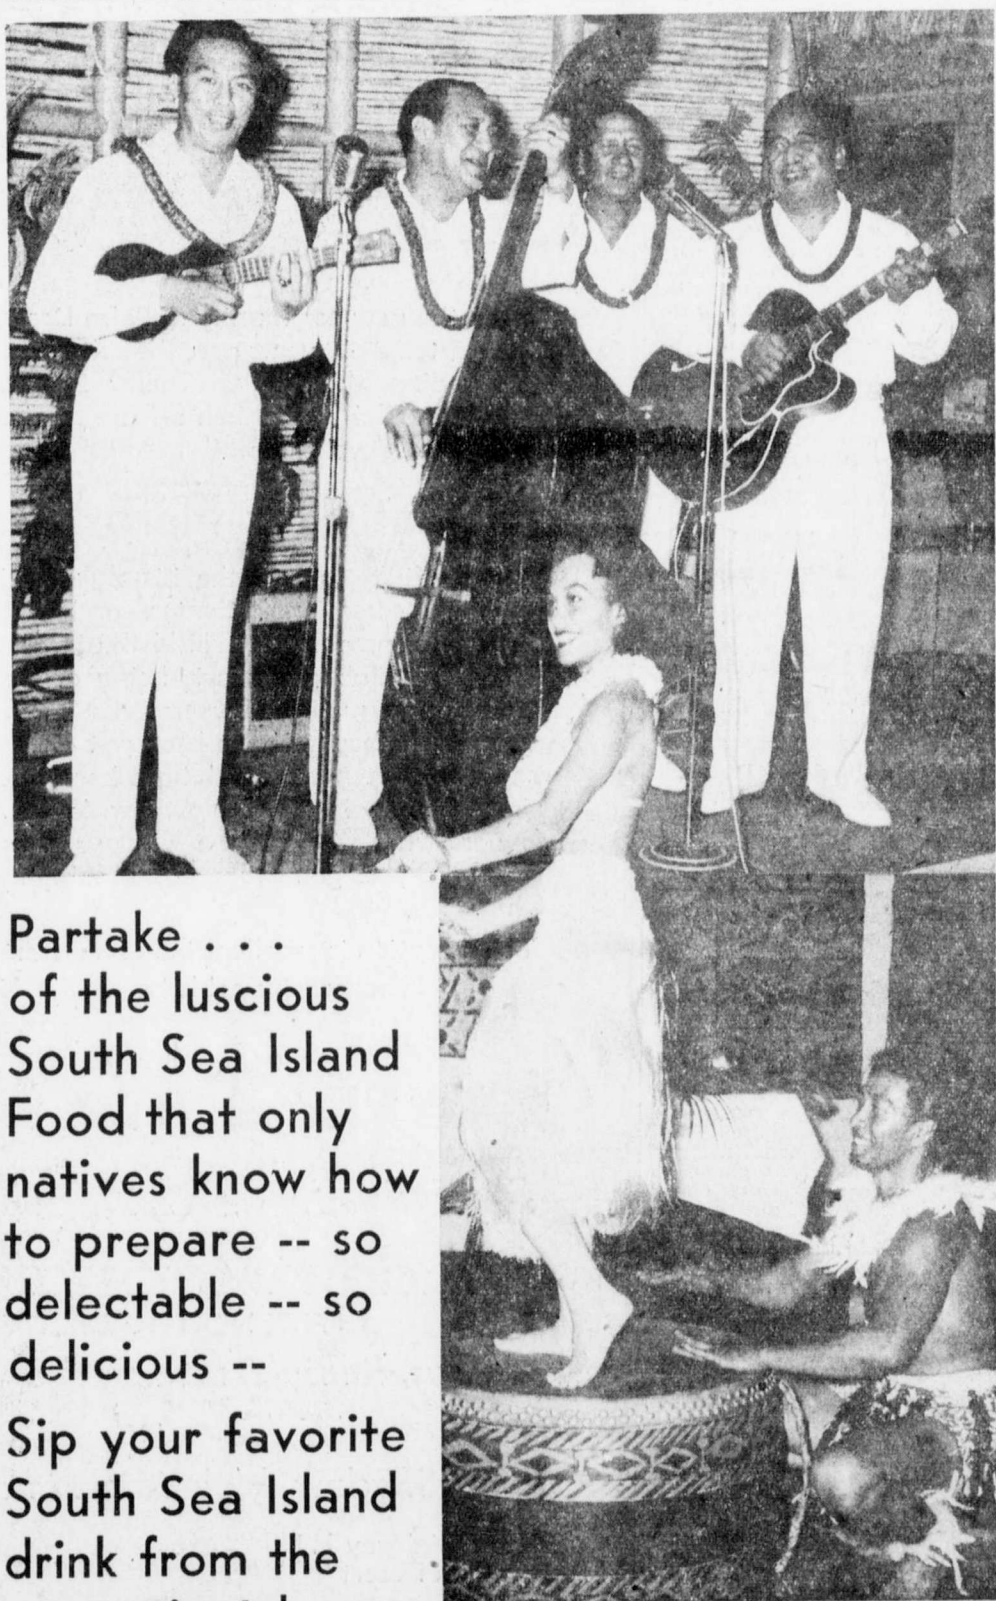

Open House for Sixsmith Guest

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet C. Sixsmith of Linda Vista road held open house to their friends on Saturday, February 12, to meet their house guest Rev. John Dempsey, former national chaplain of the Newman Club Federation and now serving as pastor of St. Vincent's Church in Attica, New York. Rev. Dempsey left for home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Tuttle hosted a small farewell party at the Racquet Club Thursday evening before returning to their Los Angeles home after a desert vacation.

Dinner Party Fetes Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. David Margolis were hosts at a Saturday night party at the Racquet Club celebrating his birthday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ruben (president of Bond clothiers), Mr. and Mrs. Irving Moslowitz of Rochester, New York (vice president of Bonds) and the Sid Rosenblums of New York. Before buying radio station KCMJ, Margolis was a vice president and promotion manager for Bonds. The proposal to put the Czechs out of the World Bank leaves the punsters speechless. —Boston Globe.

Thriller Opens at Playhouse

"Who-dun-it" fans will be flocking to the Palm Springs Playhouse this week to see the stage thriller "Dial M for Murder" which opens tomorrow night.

The play which was filmed by Alfred Hitchcock, concerns an Englishman who plots the death of his wife and is filled with taut drama. Michael Ferrall, Playhouse director, will personally play a role in this show. Other members of the cast will be Helen Stenborg, Sidney Breese Wheeler Dryden and Robert Mandan.

"Dial M for Murder" will be presented nightly for six performances, closing Sunday evening. First Nighters will hold their regular Tuesday night dinner on opening night at the Palm Springs Biltmore at 6:15 p.m. Reservations should be made by calling Playhouse Guild headquarters 2595.

Indio Club to be Hostess to Federation

High point of interest among clubwomen of Riverside County centers on Public Relations Day of Riverside County Federation of Women's Clubs which is to be observed on February 25 at Indio with the Indio Women's Club in the role of hostess for this important event. A fashion show and a musical program is planned, with the well-known Mrs. Arthur Crom appearing as guest speaker of the day.

An Art Show presenting compositions in oils, landscapes, portraits, still life, pastels, water colors, charcoals, china paintings, sculptures and other crafts will be an outstanding feature of the day and is under the direction of Mrs. David Hunter, Art Chairman of the Indio Club, and Mrs. Claude L. Yerkes, art chairman of Riverside County Federation and member of the Palm Springs Woman's club. First, second and third awards with honorable mention ribbons will be given for the best of each class. All exhibits must be entered between eight and nine a.m.

Brownell McGrew with Mrs. Pascal Hyde, outstanding artists and jurors of the Desert Art Center of Coachella Valley, together with Mrs. Marie Ropp of Desert Hot Springs, who was a director in her own gallery and other important galleries of California, will act as judges of the various exhibits.

El Mirador is Gay with Parties, Big and Small

Parties, big and small, continue to make life a gala affair around El Mirador, with something going on every night.

Generally considered to be the most beautiful of the year, was the birthday party given Tuesday night in the Starlight Patio by E. A. Young of Hibbing, Minnesota, for his charming wife Bernie. The Youngs are season residents of the hotel.

Beginning with a cocktail party for 36 guests with a special bar set up in the patio, the party went on to a lavish dinner prepared especially for the group by Chef Gerhard Knaak.

Great sprays of red roses, white and pale lavender sweet peas and fern decorated the dinner tables.

Guests were: Ed and Millie Houghton, Ralph and Lesley Fitzgerald, Howard and Kay Morris, Mrs. Carl Soderberg, E. Roy Fitzgerald, Mrs. Janet Essinger, Lee Ashman, Clem and Marg Villeneuve, Ray and Helen Casey, Frank and Myrtle Hoy, Pat Fitzgerald, Don Gow, John and Jeanie Drew, Mrs. A. F.

Drew, Dolly Green, Elmer Peterson Jr., Harriet and Dick Vander Veer, Bess and Carl Betcher, Mrs. Bede Saunders, Mrs. Clara June Rentner, Coe and Maggie Thornton and Rea Gardner.

Wednesday night was highlighted by a cocktail party on the terrace of the Ralph Fitzgerald bungalow, with the hostess Lesley placing leis around the shoulders of arriving guests.

Outdoor and indoor tables were decorated with screened lanterns and an elaborate buffet was served by the hotel's Maitre D' Leo Rossi. The guests, numbering around 50, were entertained by Tani Marsh, celebrated exponent of Polynesian dancing, and the music of George Kainapu and his Hawaiian Surfriders, who are appearing nightly except Monday in the South Pacific room.

On Thursday night Elmer Peterson Jr. held a going away party for his friends in the hotel, before he left for the season, heading back home to Minneapolis. Cocktails were served for about 50 guests followed by dinner in El Mirador Room.

That same evening, down across the gardens by the swimming pool, South Pacific Room was crowded to capacity for the Thursday night buffet-luau, which is a weekly feature at the hotel. Among the guests were Pete Pettito, with Mrs. Catharine Crosby (Bing's mother), and Mrs. Fred Slagle.

Atom Film to be Shown This Evening

Tonight's meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's club will feature Kelly McBean, former project manager for Holmes and Narver, designers and constructors of the Eniwetok and Bikini facilities. Mr. McBean will address the meeting at the club house at 8 p.m. and has promised colored motion pictures of an actual atomic explosion at Eniwetok. Now a resident of Coachella Valley, Mr. McBean witnessed much of the pioneering construction work which began at lonely Eniwetok Atoll six years ago. Having visited the Atoll again last year, he is expected to describe at first hand some of the little known construction developments which the Holmes and Narver group have been directed to accomplish during the six years they have been under contract to the Atomic Energy Commission.

Also on the program is the male quartet known as the "Song Brothers." The precision of their work, plus a dash of comedy will add entertainment value to the evening.

Because of the unusual type of program, Mrs. Boyd Andrews, club president, urges all members to bring their husbands and to come early.

Legion Auxiliary Sees First Aid Demonstration

A graphic demonstration of first aid was given by Explorer Crew 81 of Cathedral City Tuesday evening for the regular meeting of American Legion Auxiliary Owen Coffman Unit 519 at the World Wars Memorial hall.

The demonstration was presented by George Miller, Explorer advisor, with Crew Leader Marvin Gallorani narrated the story of a gas explosion. The situation concerns a man who starts to light his gas stove. The telephone rings after he has turned on the gas and he answers the call with the match still in his hand. Returning to the stove with a lighted match still in his hand, an explosion follows.

The Crew members Robert Reese, Gershwin Holtman, Mike Woody and John Gallorani, go into action and treat the injured man for a broken leg, sprained arms, cut head, and finally carry him off in an improvised stretcher. It was a vivid example of the preparedness program of the Boy Scouts of America which sponsors the Explorer group for older boys. A cake, honoring the Boy Scouts, was served with punch following the program.

CELEBRATING the birthday of Mrs. E. A. Young of Hibbing, Minnesota, her husband gave a party at El Mirador Tuesday night. Following cocktails in the Starlight Patio dinner was served to 36 guests. Mrs. Young, assisted by her husband, cuts the magnificent birthday cake while one of the guests, Jeanie Drew, looks on.

Something NEW at Shadow Mountain

When the new community of Palm Desert was started eight years ago, the sixty acres surrounding the Million Dollar Shadow Mountain Club was taken off the market for "future development."

That Future is Here Now!

For the first time in the history of this famous Recreational Center, a limited amount of property WITHIN the Shadow Mountain Club grounds is being offered for sale to qualified buyers! ONLY 55 spacious homesites have been put on the market—thirteen of which have been sold since the opening in the last few days! A few are situated along the fairways of the new 1000-yard golf course surrounding the Club.

TV Reception is excellent in Palm Desert.
 No expensive cable here.

Another New Development

at the Club is SHADOW MOUNTAIN MANOR—a group of two bedroom, two bath homes, refrigeration cooling, two patios, complete with landscaping for only $18,850.00! Right on the Club grounds, no driving or parking worries—just a skip and a jump to all the other Club facilities.

For full information on these new homesites or the Shadow Mountain Manor cottages see or phone Edith Eddy Ward.

Mrs. Brechlin is Winner of Annual Speech Contest

A capacity audience at the Desert Museum on Wednesday evening, February 16, attended the Annual Speech Contest of Palm Springs Toastmistress Club.

Mrs. Clarence Brechlin was acclaimed the winner by the judges. Mrs. Arthur Press, Dr. James Blackstone, Rabbit Leon Rosenberg, Father William A. Blondon, City Manager Robert W. Peterson, Wilbur Mentzer.

Using as the topic of her speech, the poem "A Weed" she gave a graphic description of the fault of criticism illustrating that just as the seed in contemplating what flower it might turn into, found cause to criticize each flower it looked upon. Developing this theme she said that, so it is with human beings who continually resort to criticism, then find themselves in the position of the seed which developed into a weed—and not even the lowliest flower.

Mrs. Brechlin will now compete in the Speech Contest of Council 8 which will be held May 7 at Deep Well Inn. Council 8 of International Toastmistress Clubs is comprised of 9 clubs in nearby areas, and the winner of each local club will compete in the Council Speech Contest. The winner of that contest will be eligible to compete in Regional Contest comprising the 11 Western States.

A group of members of San Bernardino Toastmistress Club, headed by Margaret De Smith, Publicity Chairman of Council 8, were present at the local contest and all are looking forward to meeting here again for the Council contest.

The speakers in this contest were required to give a prepared speech of from 7 to 10 minutes, and then given a topic on which to speak extemporaneously for from 3 to 5 minutes.

Second and third place ratings were given to Mrs. George Ritter and Mrs. Warner Moon. All the speakers were complimented on their excellent work by the judges.

This Week's Garden Hints

FROM THE PALM SPRINGS GARDEN CLUB

Many delicate flowering plants may be successfully grown in north Shade Beds even on the desert. Among these are cyclamen, camellias, azaleas, columbine, primulas, hydrangeas, violets and lobelia.

Cyclamen is a satisfactory winter-blooming plant which comes in several shades, the white being the most showy. If planted in the ground great care must be exercised to protect it from summer sun and dryness. The simplest way to insure the longevity of the cyclamen is to leave it potted, burying the pot in the ground, so that during the summer it may be transferred to a protected harbor under an oleander. Be sure to plant your cyclamen in a generous amount of peat moss.

Plant the delicate camellia in an area protected from wind and summer sun, in peat moss, loam, leafmold, compost, and a little bone meal. Hardiest varieties are Pink Perfection, Covina, and Purity. Others are Alba Plant, Chanderi Elegans, Grandiflora Alba, and Emperor Wilhelm. These have all been desert-tested. Overhead sprinkling will create helpful humidity.

Azaleas are perhaps the most unsatisfactory of the shade plants. They will do well for about three years before discouragement sets in and they call quits. A monthly application of a solution of a level teaspoon of ammonia sulfate to a gallon of water will keep the soil at the necessary acidity level.

The lacy leaf columbine with its graceful blossom makes a perfect addition to the shade bed. They come in a great variety of delicate shades. Separate plants after blooming season, which is late spring.

Primulas must be treated as annuals and they can't pass the summer test. Their delicate foliage and hues blend well with the columbine.

Hydrangeas, though they sometimes die back in the heat of summer, will surprise you by coming back with a heavy growth and healthy blooms. Select a hardy variety and avoid hybrids.

Violets make lovely borders and thick ground covering under shade trees. Amazing how this seemingly delicate little plant thrives here. Some varieties give blooms from the last of October to March.

A dependable vine for the walled and shaded patio is the ivy. Slow to become established, it picks up speed after about three years and runs over the garden wall. Sword ferns and maiden-hair may also be grown successfully in your shade beds. But remember that the secret of survival through the summer is to keep beds from drying out and protect plants from direct summer sun.

"Requiem" to be Presented by Civic Chorus Feb. 27

Season ticket holders for the Palm Springs Civic Chorus concerts will be pleased to know that on Sunday, February 27, the chorus will sing the Brahms "Requiem" at 8:15 p.m. in the Frances Stevens School Auditorium.

Because of the enthusiasm with which the audience received last year's presentation of the "Requiem," Director Harry Tomlinson included it in this year's repertoire, a distinction shared only with the perennial favorite, Handel's "Messiah."

The "Requiem" is Brahms' most important choral work; actually, it laid the foundation for his world-wide fame. It's resignation from Mrs. Marion Lineau, which was read with regret.

All board members were present at Wednesday's meeting.

triumph can be explained by its classical character, in which emotion and sentiment are given strong prominence, and also by the wonderful melodious magic of its tender themes, which are thoroughly singable.

The "Requiem" consists of seven movements. Only three of them, the third, fifth and sixth have solo parts interwoven with them; all the others are purely choral. The choir is fortunate in obtaining again Merwyn Dant, baritone; and Anne Shaw Price, soprano; as soloists.

Individual tickets are now on sale at the Palm Springs Music company, the Bar of Music, El Paseo Drug Store, and the Village Pharmacy. Tickets may also be obtained by contacting Tomlinson, or any member of the Civic Chorus.

SOROPTIMIST Club held a dinner meeting at Town and Country restaurant Wednesday evening honoring Martha Servis, executive secretary of the National Federation of Soroptimist Clubs, who was visiting here from Philadelphia. President Lucille Johnson, left, is seated next to the guest of honor.

ALOHA NUI is the greeting on the scrolls which Roy Bradley, left, is presenting to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Becker on behalf of Don the Beachcomber restaurant. These scrolls, which are occasionally presented to Beachcomber patrons, make the recipients "Beachcombers (First Class)". Colorfully decorated the scroll also carries the Beachcomber's Creed which concludes "Of all Life's Pleasures deeply drink, At every worry give a wink. It's much, much later than you think."

MILDRED SOUTHWICK POTTER

9:45 Tues. Eve. over KCMJ

(New "WORDS TO SAY" Series)

I sing of Palm Springs and its joys multifarious
Be one hermit inclined, or a type most gregarious.
All rustle and bustle, making the bucks in a hustle
Or sunning or funning, or resting or nesting.
Where you wear what you please, where Eastern goes Western Where the fair skinned get tan skinned and a eyeful of bare skin.
And I don't mean a rug.

Where Great Grandmothers fly and visitors vie
With characters local and whimsical.
Who wear zany hats, painted cravats
And costumes cut briefly and lyrical.
When a President visits and you and I hope its
A yearly occurrence, Rumor is that it will be.

So — Drop in and see me at the fine MURPHY REALTY. That's right next to the Citizens Bank. Ask for MILDRED S. POTTER. She's the gal that you oughta see for homes, lots or income. Phone OFFICE 5102 or HOME 3364 — For listings galore!

LIBRARY NOTES

RELEASED this month is the second book of Jane Eklund Ball, teacher of history and civics in Palm Springs Union high school. The book "Phillippa," which has a Los Angeles locale, is getting very good reviews all over the country. Mrs. Ball and her husband Everett own a home here at 1026 Avenida Caballeros. The author's first book "The Only Gift," was published in 1949.

It is always fun to tell you about a local writer and it is especially exciting when the book is as dramatic and appealing as Jane Eklund Ball's new novel, "Phillippa." Mrs. Ball is not only a resident of Palm Springs, having moved here last year, but she teaches at the Palm Springs high school. Her first book, "The Only Gift," was published in 1949 and its scene is Winnetka, Illinois where she maintained a residence during the war years, although she was working for the Department of Justice in New York and Washington.

One of the main characters of "Phillippa," John Douglas, had once been certain that every human being must be forced to stand alone before being able to share. Now he knew some human beings were not able to stand alone. "Phillippa" is a mature, skilful and extremely dramatic elaboration of this thought, centering in the lives of the Los Angeles Mace family—and readers who are familiar with this area will immediately identify the Old Wilshire Section as the locale of the story. The main events are condensed into the little over three hours consumed by the Mace's final 'at home' before the house is sold. During this time, singly and collectively, they face their private conflicts and their family disaster. While surface-wise the party proceeds with all the elat of a gala occasion, contrapuntally the emotions and feelings of the Maces are probed, and with great perception, Mrs. Ball's writing is compact and fluid. She has a feeling for things as they refer to people and as they telescope events in memory for the individual personality. Her understanding of the many forces that influence, and sometimes solidify, character gives verisimilitude to this story of a talented and beautiful girl who leans on other people, on the myriad details of a superficially busy life, on running around smartly to take the place of her very self.

Lapped in the elegance of the occasion, the memories of Phillippa and her family travel widely, affording glimpses of San Francisco, New York, Bimini, Reno, the farming home-

Bill Irwin Show Pleases Saddle and Sirloin Patrons

Dave Lyons of the Saddle and Sirloin has come up with a form of entertainment that's a lulu!

It is all contained in the form of one Bill Irwin, who is an organist, pianist and of all things a cartoonist, employing all three of these talents to entertain those present.

The cartooning angle is something new here. Bill Irwin asks a patron to jot his initials down on a specially prepared card. Then miracles begin to happen.

Before one knows what has happened Irwin has converted those initials into a cartoon which he calls "Carica-toons." The name implies that the cartoon has something to do with one's character—and it is a laugh provoker too.

But Irwin's artistry with the pen does not take away from his expert playing of the organ and will play any favorite tune steads of Nebraska and the middle west, all these memories and emotions coming to a smashing climax at the end of the afternoon. Mrs. Ball's story gains terrific momentum and suspense in the telling.

Mrs. Ball, who graduated from UCLA, taught creative writing at Leland Stanford University where she took her M.A. and she brings to her work maturity of thought and great competence in expressing that thought. She is tantalizingly aware of people as individuals, of people as members of families, and of people as citizens of a complex and engrossing world.

AID TO HOSPITAL

The newly formed Ladies' Auxiliary of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation is the manning of a booth at the Indian Fair. Pauline Kull is chairman, and in charge with women of the Auxiliary to assist her.

Omar Kirschner, of the Fair Committee, has loaned his quartz crystal to be displayed in the booth, and it has been the custom in the past to throw coins upon the crystal. All such coins gathered will be used as donations to the Foundation.

Mrs. Ferne Morgan has written a brochure, which has been printed, telling about the Foundation, and is being distributed to Fair-goers.

The beautiful poster on display is the work of Mrs. Harry Choster.

Auxiliary members present were: Pauline Kull, chairman, Esther Morrison, Frances McGee, Thelma Volkman, Dona Larsen, Bernice M. Stewart of Costa Mesa, and the hostess Ferne Morgan, who later served delicious refreshments.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN'S FUND

The distribution and collection of the coin containers for the Crippled Children's Fund (Easter Seals) will be in the hands of the women of the VFW. This is only one of their many community services.

RAMBLING AROUND TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Newman of Glendale were in town for the day, seeing about property they own locally. They also attended the dedication ceremonies of the new State Park at Salton Sea. Col. James P. Westerfield was in charge of the program, and he is a close personal friend of the Newmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moffatt and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boland of Berkeley spent a few days visiting the Moffatts' friend of twenty-five years, Mr. Charles Meadows. Moffatt is business manager of the Berkeley Daily Gazette.

Mrs. Helen Young has returned from a week in Los Angeles and Santa Anita, where she reports her "system" of picking her racing program with a pin (with eyes closed, of course) was successful.

Mrs. Edna Helvey has resigned as secretary of the park board. Virginia Concoran was appointed to fill the vacancy. "Liberty" now that he has sold his newspaper, the Desert Hot Springs "Sentinel." First thing he has done is buy himself a Packard.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dixon celebrated

Mrs. Dixon's birthday by inviting several friends for a swim at the hot water pool, and then returning home for supper and canasta. Those enjoying the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bridwell, and Geo. E. Kelscher.

J. J. Baileys have been sprucing up their home on Pioneer boulevard. They have put in a patio, and garden, and the latest improvement is a sidewalk. They are now the only private dwelling on the north side of the street to have a sidewalk.

Gaylord Richmond, of La Canada, was in town for the day, visiting his friend Mrs. Betty Lukomski. Richmond was former dean of the college where Mrs. Lukomski studied ceramic work, and their friendship stems from these days. Richmond is now a resident of Palm Springs, where he has the Richmond Gallery, at 223 South Palm Canyon drive.

Annie Rider and Ted Baugh of Ojai, California, are visiting Pearl Sizelove, the former's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobson entertained their son, Craig, and a friend, Miss Darleen Collins, of Boise, Idaho, over a recent weekend.

Tom Bartlett and Wayne Day, are entertaining their friend Harry Carson, who has the important title of National Chairman of Professional Group of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

Mrs. Cliff Stewart and her daughter, Eleanor Helmick, left for Oregon last Monday to visit another daughter, Shirley.

The Boy Scout troop, under the direction of Wilbur Menden and Frank Russell, liked to the outskirts of town a few evenings ago, for a drill in outdoor craft. They had been meeting indoors for the past several weeks.

Several Desert Hot Springs women are entering their handwork in the Riverside County Fair and Date Festival at Indio. Betty Lukomski is entered in the ceramics division; Barbara Reibiger has textile painting, a skirt, apron and handkerchief; Pauline Kull will enter her beautiful handmade quilt, and also entering quilts. Mrs. Merle Larson, Betty Addington and Grace Parsons Harmon are both entering dried weed arrangements, miniatures, fresh flowers. Only three localities have paintings on display this year. Al Lamoreux, young son of Bett Addington is showing his pastel of still life. Helen Young and Enola Hulbert each have an oil painting on display.

DESERT SONGWRITERS

One can never tell about the hidden talents of a waiter or a waitress. In addition to the skill of keeping everyone happy at mealtime, many of these white-jacketed boys and girls have other talents. For instance drop in at the Shadow Mountain club anytime and you might hear some of the melodies and lyrics that composers Fred DiAno and Marian Olsen have rolled out. For the past eight years these two folks have been collaborating musically to put out such songs as "Loneliness," "Let Cupid Sing Your Heart," "Back Porch Blues" and many others.

Fred DiAno, the musician of the two, is studying to become a composer and arranger in the big time. At present he is working with Russ Garcia who is one of the musical arrangers at Universal Studios.

Marian Olsen, who is a waitress at the Shadow Mountain club, aspires to the life of a novelist. To further her experience along these lines she is studying at the Storycrafters Guild.

PAN HELLENIC

College women of the Palm Desert area are anticipating many pleasant reunions with their sorority sisters when plans for the creation of a new chapter of Pan Hellenic are completed. Still in the formative stages, the movement is being spear-headed by Mrs. E. C. Ruge and Mrs. Robert Ellisworth. Women in attendance thus far have represented fifteen sororities and twenty-five colleges. Meetings will be continued on the second Thursday of each month, at the Shadow Mountain club at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. O. J. Sayles and Mrs. Garrett Weyand of San Bernardino Pan Hellenic, addressed the group at the last meeting and reported that their chapter had secured scholarships for some fifty girls averaging at least $400 in assistance per year for their four-year courses. Many scholarships offered by California colleges remain unused, and the Palm Desert group intend to see to it that all local high school seniors desiring to continue their education are given information as to available scholarships and assistance in securing them. They hope to help students make wise choices in the selection of their colleges. There are no dues, and any college woman is welcome at the next get-acquainted meeting on March 10, 1955.

ROLLER SKATING

With the coming of warm evenings the Hi-Liters of the Palm Desert Community Recreation group have added roller skating to their many activities. A concrete slab has been constructed just outside the church house for this purpose alone. The Hi-Liters have also challenged the girls of the Palm Springs Youth Center in a basketball game to take place on Thursday, March 3, 1955. Last week the boys of the group played a very close and exciting game with the Palm Springs Youth Center group. All young adults between the ages of 13 and 18 are very cordially invited to attend any of these get-togethers on each Thursday, regardless of church affiliation, color or creed.

PALM DESERT BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Allabough and their daughter, Karen, have been visiting with the Edward Sergeants for the past week. Allabough is the brother of Mrs. Sergeant, a resident of Van Nuys, and is with the Columbia Broadcasting Company. Abe Lincoln shared his birthday last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Vallat Jr., who also celebrated their birthdays on that date. Mr. Joe Hughes hosted the celebration which was in the form of a cocktail party at his home. Also present at the party were B. B. Beschoff, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Schwickel, and Mr. George Berke, Mrs. Frank Fischer and Fred Siemen. . . . Seen at the Shadow Mountain club last week were Arthur Lake (Dagwood) and Mrs. Lake as guests of Edith Eddy Ward and Bunny Ward. . . . Also present on the same evening were Governor and Mrs. Shivers (Governor of Texas), Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagner and Mr. Monte Moncrief from Palm Springs. . . . Mrs. Arthur Snowden from Honolulu is visiting on the desert. . . . Also from the Islands come Mr. and Mrs. John S. Clark who are here on the desert for a stay.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scout board of directors held their regular meeting last week at the Girl Scout Little House. The highlight of the meeting was the announcement of the "Court of Awards" to be held at the Girl Scout House at 7:30 p.m., February 24 with Troop No. 21 of Cathedral City being the official hostesses. All parents are urged to attend as this is a most important event for the girls.

Also discussed was the need for talent in instructing the girls. They would like "Folk Dancing" and "Book Binding." Any volunteers qualified or interested would be welcome. The meeting of the board of directors is held the second Thursday of every month 10 a.m. at the Girl Scout Little House on Avenida Caballeros.

After a day of driving around on the highways, one motorist says he's tired of risking his life so he's going down to enlist in the Costa Rica-Nicaragua war—Fletcher Knebel, Nana Syndicate.

Legal Notices

No. 460 NOTICE GEORGE M. WIENER, Plaintiff

VS. RICHARD M. LEVINE, et al., Defendants

MUNICIPAL COURT LOS ANGELES JUDICIAL DISTRICT

CONSTABLE'S SALE ON EXECUTION Under and by Virtue of the above numbered writ of execution, issued out of the Municipal Court of Los Angeles, Judicial District of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, dated the 4th day of February A.D. 1955 in the above entitled action, (and directed to the Constable, Palm Springs Judicial District, State of California) wherein the above named Plaintiff GEORGE M. WIENER obtained a judgment for the sum of $2,124.10, with interest and costs, against the above named Defendant RICHARD M. LEVINE, et al.

For the sum of $2,124.10, with interest and costs, against the above named Defendant RICHARD M. LEVINE, et al., of and to the following described real property, situated, lying and being in the County of Riverside, State of California, and more particularly described as follows: To-wit: Lots 74, 75 and 76 of John McI. Tract, City of Palm Springs, County of Riverside, State of California, as shown by map on file in Book 13 page 18 of Maps, Records of Riverside County, California.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That I will on Tuesday, the 15th day of March A.D. 1955, at 10 o'clock P. M., at which time and place said bids will be opened and read aloud in public, for furnishing all labor, materials, equipment, transportation and services required for playground improvements at the Desert Hot Springs School, Desert Hot Springs, California, including asphaltic pavement, water pipes, and metal fence.

Each bid shall include all work covered by and shall be in accordance with specifications and other contract documents prepared for this work by said Architects. Prospective bidders may secure copies of said specifications and contract documents at the office of said Architects at the place above set out.

Pursuant to the Labor Code of the State of California, and to answer the Board has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for unskilled laborers and workmen, to execute the contract which will be awarded to the successful bidder, and these prevailing rates are as follows: PER HOUR Asphalt Packer & Ironer 2.28% Laborer or Construction Worker 2.07% Metal Fence Erector 2.30% Truck Driver 2.30%

Drivers of Dump Trucks of less than 4 1/2 Tons: Level 2.18 Drivers of Dump Trucks 4 1/2 Tons and less than 8 Tons: Level 2.21 Drivers of Trucks Legal Pass-Load Capacity less than 6 tons 2.18 Drivers of Trucks Legal Pass-Load Capacity between 6 and 10 tons 2.21 Operating Engineer 2.21

The hourly wage is based on an eight hour day. The hourly rate is the per diem rate divided by the number of hours in a working day. It shall be mandatory upon the Contractor to whom a contract is awarded, against whom money under contract, to pay not less than said general prevailing rates of per diem wages for all laborers and workmen in the execution of the contract.

Each bid must be accompanied by a check or cashier's check for the amount of the bid, payable to the order of "Palm Springs Unified School District," shall be sealed and filed on or before the date and time, and at the place above said.

The above mentioned check or bidder's bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract if awarded the work and will be deemed forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into contract after being required to do so by said Governing Board.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to said Governing Board.

The Governing Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids and waive any informality in them. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 15 days after the date set for the opening thereof.

HELEN K. STALEY Clerk of said Governing Board Publish February 14, 21, 1955

CERTIFICATE OF FICTITIOUS NAME

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that N. B. Clarke, conducting a real estate business at 1600 Chia Road, City of Palm Springs, County of Riverside, in an account equal to 100% of the contract price, and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to the contract price, said bonds to be secured by a surety company or surety companies satisfactory to said Governing Board.
